

FARMERS GIVEN WARM WELCOME

Great Meeting of Agriculturalists Opens at St. Paul Today.

SIX DAYS' SESSION

Tillers of the Soil Will Discuss the Question of Better Prices.

A TYPICAL GATHERING

T. PAUL, Minn., June 10.—The convention of the Allied National Farmers' association of America, under direction of the National Grain Growers' Association, opened here today for a session of six days. Gov. S. R. Van Sant of Minnesota, welcomed the farmers to the state, while Mayor Smith spoke a welcome on behalf of the city of St. Paul. Other prominent speakers are Jas. Wilson, secretary of agriculture; Marquis De Vogue, president National Grain Growers' Association of France; James J. Hill, president Great Northern; Archbishop Ireland, Senator W. E. Mason, John Lind, ex-governor of Minnesota; Joseph Leiter, W. D. Washburn, James H. Kyle, chairman Industrial Commission; Prof. Gustav Ruhland, University of Wisconsin; George H. Phillips, Chicago; S. H. Greeley, Chicago; J. C. Hanley, St. Paul; M. P. Morgan, president National Grain Growers' Association. A public reception and banquet will be tendered Mr. Geo. H. Phillips. About one hundred thousand people are in attendance.

Objects of the Association. The aim of the association is to organize the farmers of the world into one great international society, that will educate, enlighten and defend the farmers of all countries against the encroachments of trusts and combines, with whom they have to deal in the passage of their products from the producer to the consumer. Never before has the city of St. Paul had the good fortune to welcome so many of the sturdy ruralists, a class who contribute in a large measure to form the bone and sinew of a mighty nation and help to perpetuate its most stable laws and institutions. College graduates are not scarce among these men of field and farm yard, nor are the accomplishments of their wives and daughters meager or commonplace. Invigorated during twelve months of every year with the fresh air and all-round exercise of those whose happy lot falls in the country, they have come up to this great Minnesota city in holiday spirit, yet full of practical methods for the furtherance of the comprehensive project which has called them together.

A Great Gathering of Farmers. Owing to the favorable conditions attending this National Grain Growers' convention in the shape of cheap railroad rates, the importance of the subjects under discussion, the reputation of the speakers who are known as leaders in their respective countries, the desire to accomplish something that will advance the cause of the farmer, the season of the year when the weather is most propitious, when farmers are least busy after their spring work, and before commencing their summer work, and the prospect of having a holiday, the agriculturalists responded in large numbers to the call of J. C. Hanley, secretary and treasurer of the organization. Many are en route to St. Paul today. The convention is a typical gathering of the progressive, up-to-date farmers of the northwestern states, and is deserving of the success which it proposes to achieve.

SMITH WILL NOT LEAVE THE CABINET

Postmaster-General Says He Will Stay at His Post Until End of McKinley's Term. Pittsburg, Pa., June 10.—Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith came to Pittsburg today to visit Calvin Wells, the owner of The Philadelphia Press, in which paper Mr. Smith himself is interested. Mr. Smith was spoken to regarding the published report that he would withdraw from President McKinley's cabinet. He replied: "There is no truth in the rumors that I shall resign my seat in the cabinet. I shall remain until the end of President McKinley's term."

J. P. Towne of Edgerton is in the city today on legal business.

PLAN FOR THE ENDEAVORERS.

Large Attendance Anticipated for Early July at Cincinnati. Cincinnati, O., June 10.—The most elaborate arrangements have been made for the twentieth international convention of the Christian Endeavor here July 6 and 10. As many were unable to attend the convention in London last year a larger attendance than usual is expected, especially as these conventions hereafter are to be held only once in two years. A chorus of 15,000 trained voices will be a feature at Music hall.

Madison 16, Janesville 13.

Madison, Wis., June 10.—The Madison travelers Saturday defeated the Janesville Knights of the Grip, the score being 16 to 13. This was the second time the Madison team has beaten the Janesvilleites. Considerable money changed hands on the game.

MCKINLEY STANDS BY HIS FRIENDS

Myron H. McCord, Formerly of Wisconsin, Given Another Good Job in State of Colorado.

Washington, D. C., June.—The appointment by the president yesterday of Myron H. McCord, a former Wisconsin man, to be marshal of the territory of Arizona was one of the instances of a man landing a good federal position when it was supposed he was out of the race for further recognition. It is also an illustration of the tenacity with which William McKinley stands by his friends of former days. Myron McCord formerly lived at Shawano and later at Merrill, Wis. He served in the legislature and was sent to congress. He was a member of the Wisconsin delegation in the Fifty-first congress, when the contest was waged between the friends of Thomas B. Reed and those of William McKinley over the speakership. In that contest the Wisconsin delegation, with the exception of McCord supported Reed.

He moved to Arizona about seven years ago and was a McKinley delegate in the convention at St. Louis, and after the inauguration in 1897, he came here as a candidate for the governorship of Arizona. He won the place after one of the most bitter contests ever waged here, over an appointment to a federal position. He won his present position only after a most bitter fight.

HOSTS OF Y. M. C. A. TO BE AT BOSTON

JUBILEE CONVENTION OPENS AT THE "HUB" TOMORROW.

Many Distinguished Foreign Workers Will Be Present—An Interesting Program for a Four Days' Session Has Been Arranged—John Wannamaker Talked of for President.

Boston, Mass., June 10.—The international jubilee convention of the Young Men's Christian association will formally open in Mechanics' building at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. The conditions for a memorable convention are most auspicious. The actual opening of the jubilee occurs tomorrow evening, when an exhibit which typifies the broad general lines of worth of the association will be thrown open to the public.

Talk of the Presidency. As yet the talk about the presidency of the association has not been definite. The men most mentioned now for the presidency are W. E. Dodge of New York, John Wannamaker of Philadelphia, and James H. Eckels of Chicago.

The honor of presiding may fall on a Bostonian, but as yet no name has been suggested save that of H. M. Moore, and it is doubtful if he would dare to assume the hard work that such an office would necessitate.

Besides the devotional exercises of the convention and the business sessions there will be social gatherings, a jubilee outing to Plymouth and other entertainments.

Plans for Wednesday.

On Wednesday a reception will be tendered to the delegates by the trustees of the museum of fine arts and by the women's auxiliaries of the Massachusetts and Rhode Island associations.

Many distinguished foreign workers of the Y. M. C. A. will be present at the jubilee. They come chiefly from England, but there is a good-sized delegation from France, Germany, Russia, Switzerland, Japan and China. South America is also represented, and thus the new and the old world join hands to honor the Y. M. C. A. movement and help signalize its half century of endeavor in America.

The speakers at the convention are chiefly Americans, with a few from across the Canadian border, but greetings from European unions will be received on Wednesday afternoon.

MYSTIC SHRINERS AT KANSAS CITY

Big Council of the Order Opens Today with Over 6,000 Members Present.

Kansas City, Mo., June 10.—It is estimated that 6,000 shriners are in Kansas City today at the opening of the twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Imperial council of the Mystic Shrine. Hundreds are coming in on every train. Great preparations have been made for their reception during the four days of the gathering. Two parades will be held tomorrow with a grand concert and drill in convention hall in the evening and an exhibition drill at Exposition park on Wednesday, followed by a ball on Wednesday night. Philip Shaffer of Philadelphia probably will be elected the Imperial potentate.

MADISON WOMEN FIGHT A CARNIVAL

Men Promoting the Project Are Bound To Carry It Through—A Merry Contention Is Probable.

Madison, Wis., June 9.—The Woman's club of this city has decided to make an organized fight against the movement inaugurated by the Forty thousand club to hold a street carnival in this city next fall. The women have decided to circulate petitions protesting against the project and have appointed Mmes. John M. Olson, George Raymer and E. C. Mason to circulate them. The club is unanimous in its opposition to another carnival.

The men promoting the project declare that the opposition of the Women's club will not prevent them from carrying out the enterprise. A merry fight is thus assured.

Wreck Explodes Dynamite.

Binghamton, N. Y., June 10.—While a freight train on the Lackawanna was taking water at Vestal, ten miles west of here, it was run into from behind by a double-header wild-cat freight. In the second car from the caboose of the stationary train was a large quantity of dynamite, which was exploded by the impact. Six men are known to have been killed and a number of others badly injured. The dead are: Elmer Polhemus, trainman; William Meddick, trainman; Theodore Polhemus; J. M. Kelly; Mattice, engineer; Wetherbee, fireman. The injured: Unknown man, fatally injured; Lonegan, engineer, fatally injured; George Mattice, trainman.

WILL FAVOR THE TOTAL ABSTAINER

LIFE INSURANCE MEN TALK OF MAKING A DISTINCTION.

People Who Use Strong Liquor of Any Kind in Any Way, Will Have To Pay a Higher Premium for Life Insurance—Drinking Men Are Shorter Lived.

Chicago, June 10.—The plan of a big life insurance company of New York to write policies for total abstainers on a different basis from that offered users of alcoholic stimulants attracted general interest among insurance men yesterday. Policy holders, too, were interested, but the most lively time was among those who saw in the move a victory for their doctrine—total abstinence. Other life companies are expected by insurance men to test the plan, and total abstinence policies may become an established class of life insurance.

Death Rate of Drinking Men.

The idea of making the total abstainer a preferred risk was brought about through the efforts of John Wannamaker, Dr. Edward Everett Hale, former Governor Larrabee of Iowa, and other prominent men. They made the claim that the death rate of drinking men was so far in excess of that of total abstainers that the latter should be classed by themselves and given better terms.

Being classed by themselves their extra chances of long life soon will tell on the total sums set apart for these policies, and if expectations are realized the "dividends" will become much larger than those on alcohol users' policies.

The beginning of a set of tables through this innovation in life underwriting, showing through statistics to be gathered the exact difference in the periods of the life of men who drink alcoholic liquors and those who do not, is considered by life insurance men as an excellent start toward getting valuable information on which to base premium rates in the future.

Insurance Men Approve It.

The plan of giving the preference in the way of rates to the total abstainer is thought by insurance authorities to be a move in the right direction.

"Putting total abstainers in a special class and giving them preferred rates is a sensible move on the part of the insurance company that has taken the initiative in this matter," said L. D. Condee, one of the attorneys of a New York life insurance company, and an authority on life insurance subjects. "It is a well proven fact that the use of alcohol shortens life. This makes the man using liquor a less desirable risk than the one leaving it entirely alone. I look to see all the big life companies take up this plan in the near future. I would suggest three plans of policies. The total abstained, the most desirable risk, should come first, and should be given the lowest rate. The man who takes a drink occasionally would be the next and last would come the man who takes his daily drink."

WISCONSIN MASONS MEET TOMORROW

Fifty-Seventh Annual Convocation to Open in City of Milwaukee—Increased Membership.

Milwaukee, June 10.—The fifty-seventh annual communication of the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin Jurisdiction, Free and Accepted Masons, will be opened at the Masonic Temple building tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The meeting will last three days and will be attended by about 200 delegates and other members of the fraternity. Tuesday will be devoted to the preliminaries, and to the hearing of the address of Grand Master C. C. Rogers.

Tuesday evening the Grand lodge will hold the annual lodge of sorrow for the 272 members who died during the year 1900.

On Wednesday officers will be elected, and Wednesday evening the work of the Master Mason's degree will be exemplified for the entertainment of the members of the grand lodge by the Kilbourn lodge, No. 3, in the lodge room in the Masonic building, and Milwaukee lodge, No. 261, at its quarters in Ivanhoe temple.

Grand Master C. C. Rogers will preside. The report of Grand Secretary W. W. Perry will show the membership of the order in Wisconsin to be 18,210, a net gain for the past year of 501.

Nobleman Dies in a Cell.

Winchester, Va., June 10.—Edward de Duple, 35 years of age, whose career ended in a police cell in Washington, D. C., where he was found dead after having been placed under arrest for intoxication, was the sole heir to an earldom in France, and was an exile from that country. His true name was Edgar de Chambord.

MERRILL MAY NOT COMPETE

Prevented by College Examinations From Going to Buffalo.

Beloit, Wis., June 10.—It is doubtful if Ed. Merrill can find it possible to go to Buffalo June 15, because of examinations. The prospect of his going has created much enthusiasm here, and every effort will be brought to bear to persuade the college to make it possible for him to go. There is some prospect of the college baseball team playing with Yale at Buffalo before long. It is said that Yale planned to play Chicago but is not satisfied with the record of the big varsity and may transfer her date to Beloit.

To Represent Wisconsin.

Madison, Wis., June 10.—Governor LaFollette today appointed the following commissioners to represent Wisconsin at the St. Louis exposition in 1903: Senator James H. Stout, Menominee; W. D. Hoard, Fort Atkinson; William Geuder, Milwaukee; W. H. Fleet, Merrill; W. A. Scott, Madison.

CATHOLICS MAY WIN IN DUTCH ELECTIONS

Defeat of Protestant Regime in Holland Next Wednesday—Roman Party Shows Vast Gains.

The Hague, June 10.—It is now more than probable that the greatest political and religious event in the history of the Netherlands may occur next Wednesday, when the parliamentary elections will be held. The Roman Catholics have been steadily gaining at each general election during the past decade and recent provincial elections have gone almost entirely in their favor.

It is predicted that the young queen whose ancestors have all espoused and shed their blood for the cause of Reformed Protestantism, will be surrounded by a Catholic ministry.

Already the Catholics are a great power in the second chamber, and should they continue their successes in Friesland and southern Holland. They will find themselves in a position to turn the balance of parties. A clerical majority in the second chamber will give a Catholic ministry the opportunity of dissolving on the first approach of a deadlock and will virtually change Holland, the birthplace of Erasmus, from a Protestant to a Catholic country.

For this reason the people are wrought up to an unusual pitch of excitement.

FARMERS GET RID OF ANIMAL PESTS

Great Hunt at Palmyra Resulted in Thousands of Animals and Birds Killed.

Palmyra, Wis., June 10.—The sixth annual hunt of the LaGrange and surrounding country farmers closed with the following result: Captain G. H. Lawton and aide won with a margin of 20,000 points in their favor, the total score being 96,480 points. This represents the killing of a large number of woodchucks, 700 crows, 2,700 grey gophers, seventy-eight hawks and owls. There were twenty-eight hunters on each side, J. Renner making the largest score with 8,350 points in his favor. Nine others scored over 2,000 each. The event closed with a monster supper at which over 400 were served, the expenses being paid by the losing side.

TOOK A DOSE OF BED BUG POISON

A Beloit Woman Makes a Desperate Attempt to End Her Life—Grieved for Dead Husband.

The report comes from Beloit that Mrs. Horace Rose, the youngest daughter of H. Rosenblatt, the overall manufacturer, attempted to end her life yesterday afternoon by taking bed bug poison. She was discovered and taken to her home and the doctors hope to save her life.

Mrs. Rose left home yesterday afternoon shortly after dinner on her wheel saying she was going for a ride she went to a small grove near the Catholic cemetery where she thought she would not be seen and took a dose of bed-bug poison, containing carbolic acid.

She was discovered lying on the ground in the grove by some children about three o'clock in the afternoon. They immediately notified the authorities and the patrol wagon was called and the young woman was conveyed to her home.

Her hands and face were badly burned by the acid in the poison. The doctors hope to save her life but she will be disfigured by the burns. Mrs. Rose lost her husband about a year ago and since that time she has been mentally unbalanced.

R. H. Griffiths returned home from West Superior Saturday where he was a delegate to the state convention of K. O. T. M.

TWO GRADUATES FROM THIS CITY

These Days Devoted to Final Examinations at University.

A VERY BUSY WEEK

Miss Harriet Bostwick and Robert Knoff Will Take Their Diplomas.

BOTH GOOD STUDENTS

Madison, Wis., June 10.—This week at the university is being devoted to the final examinations for the half year. The graduating exercises will begin with the baccalaureate sermon by Acting President Birge next Sunday in the gymnasium and will occupy nearly the entire week.

On Monday evening Bourke Cochran delivers the annual address, before the college of law in library hall and at the same time the college of pharmacy will hold its graduating exercises in north hall.

Tuesday is class day. At ten thirty in the morning the ivy ceremonies will be held on the upper campus and the usual class day addresses will be given in library hall in the afternoon. The class play will be given in the Fuller Opera house in the evening and the day's exercises will be concluded at midnight with the pow-wow and peace-pipe ceremonies on the lower campus.

Wednesday is Alumni day and will be taken up with the annual alumni business meeting and with numerous class reunions.

The Graduating Exercises.

The graduating exercises proper with the formal presentation of diplomas and conferring of degrees, will be held on Thursday morning. In the afternoon Acting President and Mrs. E. A. Birge will tender a reception to the new graduates and the alumni who are present. The week's program will be concluded on Thursday night by the annual alumni reception and ball in the armory hall of the gymnasium.

Two From Janesville.

Janesville will be represented in the university commencement exercises by two graduates, Miss Harriet Bostwick and Robert E. Knoff, both of whom will take the degree of Bachelor of Letters from the English course.

Miss Bostwick has made an enviable record during her college course. She is a leader in varsity social affairs being a member of the Delta Gamma society. At a recent election held by the faculty Miss Bostwick was given high honors as a student, being admitted to the honorary fraternity Phi Beta Kappa. Only such students are admitted to this society whose scholarship is uniformly excellent. Miss Bostwick graduated from the Janesville High school with the class of 1897.

Candidate for Journalism.

Mr. Robert Knoff also has been very successful during his career as a student. He has been prominent in student dramatic and debating circles and has for two years been an editor of the university daily paper, the Cardinal. He has been chosen by his class to deliver the pipe-of-peace oration after the play Tuesday night, he is to carry a minor part in the class play and will make the presentation of the class mementoes on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Knoff expects to enter the field of journalism; he is at present engaged as a reporter for the Madison Democrat and has just been elected to take general charge of the Daily Cardinal next year as its managing editor. Mr. Knoff graduated from the Janesville High school in 1896.

Success of Miss Hayner.

Miss Virginia Hayner, formerly of Janesville distinguished herself on Saturday night in the dramatic contest of the university. Miss Hayner played the leading lady part in the cast which was awarded first prize. The play is a roaring one-act farce, "To Oblige Benson, Miss Hayner impersonating the difficult character of Mrs. Benson, the beautiful, but indiscreet wife of Lawyer Benson. The work of the Janesville young lady was received with great applause by the large audience and gave unmistakable evidence of talent.

Claim Miss L. Worthless.

San Francisco, Cal., June 10.—Leston Baillet, a mining promoter who makes his headquarters in this city and whose home was formerly in Iowa, has been denied the privileges of the mails on the grounds that he has been using the postal service for fraudulent purposes. All letters addressed to him or to the White Swan Mining Company are ordered withheld. Baillet has induced hundreds, mainly residents of Iowa, to invest in the White Swan mine. Postal inspectors declare the mine is worthless.

IT IS ECONOMY TO MAINTAIN PAID FIREMEN IN BADGER CITIES

Interesting Paper in "The Municipality", by John C. Spencer, Chief of the Janesville Fire Department—Expense Really a Saving.

Did you ever see on hour-glass? Then, as a matter of fact, you have seen a modern Waltham watch, and are capable of choosing which time piece you would prefer. If called upon to time a horse race. The mark of comparison between the two time pieces is no greater than that between the volunteer and the paid fire departments, and the satisfactory service is no greater in the one than in the other. The hour-glass was at one time relied upon for noting the fleeting hours, the half hours, and the quarter hours, and, in its day, was considered a good time piece and held its place until superseded by the modern watch and clock. So with the volunteer fire department. In its day, which was the greater part of the last century, it was a great and an inexpensive part of the city government.

At times, especially at municipal elections, it was the most powerful portion of the government. The writer has been connected with the fire service for many years, both volunteer and paid, and ought to know something about the efficiency and economy of the two systems. Half a century ago, when hand fire engines were depended upon for fire protection, good service was rendered, especially in eastern cities, where municipalities had a fixed population, and every citizen considered himself a member of the volunteer department. This was also true, to a great extent, in the new cities of the west; but here the population being of a migratory nature, company organizations could not be maintained except at great expense to the few enthusiastic members.

Building laws, especially in the east, were more strict, and property owners more careful in seeing that their households were reasonably safe from fire. The people at that time had no deadly oils to contend with and gasoline stoves were not dreamed of. Tallow candles and whale oil lamps were considered safe and there were no electric wires to short circuit or form arcs and destroy property. The economic housewife was content to build a wood fire in the cook stove even on a mid-summer day without using explosive oils.

But the hand fire engine was supplanted by the steam fire engine, and direct pumping works are supplanting the steam fire engine, working a revolution in fire departments. It required from sixty to one hundred men to properly "man" a first-class hand engine in its day—especially on parade; from ten to twelve men on a steam engine (where the engine and hose carriage were drawn by horses), while a modern hose wagon, with direct pumping works, will discount the old system, and do the work in a much more satisfactory manner, with only four men.

The volunteers did good service with the appliances they possessed, and the expense to the municipality was nominal, as compared to the expense of paid fire departments. The expense of maintaining the volunteer system, or the greater portion, is borne by the members. They give their time and often considerable sums of money, to perfect and maintain their organization, an expense which the general public knows very little about. The volunteers had no rules except those framed by themselves, which were subject to amendment at any regular meeting.

Frequently, in smaller cities, when an alarm was sounded, it became necessary for machine shops and factories to stop work that a large portion of the help were members of the volunteer fire department and were obliged to respond to the fire bell. Here the cost of the "shut-down" and the delay in filling orders fell upon the manufacturer, which, in a great majority of cases, amounted to large sums. This expense in some places grew to such proportions that the manufacturers were compelled to stipulate to his employees that they should not join the fire company. This paved the way for the modern paid departments. Volunteers could not be procured to do fire duty.

If the municipality has work for men to do it is worth paying for, reasoned the manufacturer. Steam then supplanted hand power, horses the portable power instead of men, until a company, requiring under the old system, from sixty to seventy men, was cut down to eight or ten paid men. Then in smaller cities, high pressure water works turned down the steam fire engines, and again the men were curtailed to about four to a company. Common councils adopted rules which the men were bound to obey or seek employment in other fields. The old-time hour-glass was broken, the modern Waltham time-keeper installed.

There are only seventeen cities in the third class—Superior, Racine, La Crosse, Oshkosh, Sheboygan, Madison, Green Bay, Eau Claire, Marinette, Fond du Lac, Appleton, Janesville, Ashland, Wausau, Manitowish, Kenosha, Beloit; there are no cities in the second class, and only one in the first class—Milwaukee. There are four cities having a population—census of 1900—of less than 10,000 and over 8,000—Stevens Point, Merrill, Watertown, Chippewa Falls—which are in the fourth class. Of the third class cities only four—La Crosse, Oshkosh, Green Bay, Appleton—maintain full paid fire departments.

Merrill, of the fourth class cities, is alone in that class with a full paid department, and Milwaukee is the only first class city, and maintains a full paid system. All other cities maintain a combination system, part of the members full paid and others part paid—known as "call" men—and in a few cases volunteers, receiving no compensation. It is not necessary to maintain a large force of men; four men to a company in a single house and three to a company in a double house being ample—giving the chief power to employ help for fires when necessary, which necessity does not occur very frequently in most cities.

For the purpose of comparison the following figures are given showing the population of the several cities, the number of full paid men, number of "call" men or volunteers and the annual expense of the several departments:

CITIES.	Population of 1900.	Number Full Paid Men.	Number Call Men or Volunteers.	Fire Department Expenses for 1900.

The efficiency of a fire department under any system, is unmistakably shown in fire insurance rates in the city where such department is located. It may be that this is a case of "robbing Peter to pay Paul," but it is true that a fractional reduction of the maximum insurance rates in any city of the third class will offset the expense of the fire department.

Paid fire departments are being constantly improved, perfected and maintained on economic principles. Under the Police and Fire Commission law the membership is being improved; men are making the fire service a profession, and are striving to excel in this service. This should be encouraged by all. The commissioners should have greater power by giving them the full custody of the departments which control the membership. Each chief should be required to make a detailed report at the close of each calendar year showing certain and complete items relating to his department, which report should be uniform in regard to details. These reports should be published in pamphlet form for distribution. Such information would be of great benefit to every department.

No man in the fire service is too old to learn and he who imagines that he knows it all and is unwilling to adopt the improved methods had better step to one side and give the "red wagons" the right of way, else he may get run over and incapacitated. Chiefs of fire departments must of necessity work for the reduction of insurance rates; hence in our small cities, he must be a chronic agitator, especially in perfecting his department so as to command lower rates. He must insist upon reasonably safe construction of buildings in the commercial district, the extension of water service wherever it will tend to lower rates, make careful surveys of all buildings and streets, respecting their use in case of fire.

He should keep himself thoroughly posted regarding insurance rates not only in his own city, but throughout the state, together with the fire losses. Electric wires confront him with hidden danger and hazard to persons and property. To contend with this unseen enemy he must keep thoroughly informed regarding methods approved by men who have made the problem one of special study, and bring the same before his city government for adoption. He should attend the conventions and not only listen to but take part in the discussion of all the questions which tend to improve and strengthen the service.

If there be a city in the state having a paid or part paid fire department, which is not satisfied on account of the expense of the efficiency, let that city disband the department, reorganize the volunteer system, and then see if in less than one week thereafter insurance rates are not doubled, or insurance canceled altogether and agencies withdrawn. I am not personally interested in any insurance company or insurance business, but believe that municipalities must of necessity carry a portion of the fire risk in its fire department and remove as much of the loss as possible.

This is best accomplished by maintaining a good paid fire department and by enforcing reasonable building laws. Therefore, in my opinion, it is economy to maintain paid fire departments in Wisconsin cities.

ASKED TO HANG OUT THE FLAGS

Efforts Being Made to Have June 14, Flag Day, Observed by All Citizens.

An effort will be made this year to have Flag Day, June 14, more generally observed this year than last, the aim being to induce citizens to hang out the flag from their offices and residences, so that every section of the city may be decked with the national emblem.

There is to be no formal or public observance of the day, but everyone is asked to do his share in making the flag as much in evidence as possible in the day set apart for that purpose. Mrs. James Sidney Peck's recent appeal as regent of the Wisconsin Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution called attention to the patriotic value of such an observance; while the Sons of the American Revolution are co-operating in encouraging the movement. Flags will be raised on all of the public buildings, schools and other institutions.

ORGANIZED GANG OF HORSE THIEVES

It looks as if an organized gang of horse stealers were operating in Southern Wisconsin and Northern Illinois. Reports from animals being stolen are coming in from all parts of the country. A pair of horses were stolen from H. L. Tripp a short time ago and no trace of them has been found. A report comes from Belvidere, Illinois, that eight or ten horses have been stolen in that vicinity within the last two weeks and have not been recovered. One was stolen at Harvard last Wednesday night and one at Woodstock a day or two before that. Beloit, Hebron and Kenosha have received calls from the unwelcome visitors and policemen and sheriffs all over the country have their eyes peeled for horse thieves.

It may be that one man is doing all the work but if he is he is being kept pretty busy.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

One of the principal events of theatrical interest for the closing season here will be the presentation of "Nathan Hale," Clyde Fitch's beautiful play. The complete outfit of costumes and scenery as seen during the play's long run at the Knickerbocker theater, New York, and Powers' theater, Chicago, will be presented here in its entirety.

"Nathan Hale" stands alone as a brilliant example of the representative American play. It treats of the life of the glorious patriot spy, who at the age of twenty-one faced death on the gallows without a tremor. His ambition found its noble climax in the sacrifice of his life for his country's good. He secured information which he conveyed to Washington that enabled that great general to frustrate the plans of the British. Although Nathan Hale paid the penalty of his patriotism with his life, he died bravely in the thought that he had served his country. "Only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country," his dying words—breathed an eloquence that few famous utterances of heroes can equal. The pathos of his untimely death is heightened by the fact that he left behind him a sweetheart, Alice Adams, for whom his love, great as it was, still gave place in importance to his country's need.

The moving spirit in this play—Nathan Hale—will be interpreted by the brilliant young American actor, Howard Kyle, whose nature has endowed with the essential qualities for this role. This is the opinion of the author, Mr. Clyde Fitch, who is enthusiastic over the superb company that Manager W. M. Wilkison has brought together.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK ECHOES

There is a good joke on a prominent business man in connection with the Alumni reunion last Friday evening. The banquet was served by the ladies of the Congregational church and his wife was among the presiding geniuses who saw that the machinery behind the scenes ran smoothly. Not knowing that these reunions are restricted to members of the association and guests whose connection with the High school secures the right of invitation for them, she told her husband to come to the High school for his supper. He was on hand promptly and walking up to the treasurer's desk called for a ticket, paying the one dollar demanded without a whimper. He was having as good a time as any one during the social half hour which preceded the supper until he found out the nature of the occasion when he suddenly and mysteriously disappeared, without his supper and one dollar short financially. Perhaps he and his wife thought he was as much privileged to come to the supper as his brother who is not a graduate, but whose wife had been one of the workers on the church committee for the supper. They should remember that public officials, even members of the board of education are entitled to a few perquisites.

Never before has a graduating class received such service as the class of 1901 enjoyed from the juniors. Few people who admired the beautiful decorations in the gymnasium realized what an amount of time, labor and money they represented. All the winding of the iron beams had to be done by the young men of the class and required gymnastic dexterity as well as decorative ability.

The young ladies of the class also found plenty to do and Monday and Tuesday were practically devoted to beautifying the surroundings, among which the seniors were to close their school life. Besides the time and work the juniors spent thirty-five dollars in cold cash. The young men served as ushers all during the commencement exercises, which was no enviable task and last Friday evening members of the class were again pressed into service to wait on the tables, a duty in the excellent performance of which they found sincere pleasure. The class of '02 is a hustling one and is all right.

One of the members of the graduating class got fooled out of attending the Alumni banquet. She accepted an invitation from a young gentleman to ride to Koshkonong on the Sophomore-Freshman picnic on one condition that he should bring her back early in the afternoon. Just before time to start for home her escort disappeared with another young man and all search for him was vain. He made his appearance at 5:30 o'clock, but as it was too late for the banquet the fair graduate found what consolation she could in a supper at Hoard's hotel. If she is not the most forgiving of mortals, the young man's ride home Friday night is not to be envied.

One of the graduates sports a handsome diamond ring and it is rumored that she is soon to stand before the matrimonial altar with a well known local physician. As most of the doctors are already provided with wives, all guesses ought to come pretty near the mark.

It is also rumored that a graduate of a former year who has been principal of one of the city schools for some time will be a June bride.

The second generation is beginning to make its appearance in the Alumni ranks. Mrs. J. P. Wright and her daughter, Grace, are enthusiastic members of the association, the latter being its secretary, and Mrs. P. A. McGuire and her son, Ralph, are both entitled to membership.

Mrs. C. S. Jackson was the representative of the earliest class at the Alumni banquet. She is a member of the class of '63 and the class of '64 was represented by S. C. Burnham and S. P. Gibbs, of Menominee, Mich.

SURGEON DALY A SUICIDE

Found Dead with Bullet Hole in His Temple.

PROMINENT AMONG DOCTORS.

He Was Famous as the Originator of the "Embalmed Beef" Investigation a Few Years Ago—Intimate Friend of Gen. Miles.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 10.—Major W. H. Daly, surgeon on the staff of General Miles in Porto Rico, committed suicide at his home here by shooting himself in the right temple. The body of the doctor was found in the bathroom by Miss Mary Short, the housekeeper, lying in a pool of blood, with a revolver lying on the floor. No cause is known for Dr. Daly's deed, unless it be that insomnia drove him to temporary insanity. The doctor was a widower and leaves no immediate family. He was 59 years old and for many years had been prominent in medical circles. He gained international prominence during the Cuban war, as it was his report to the commanding general of the army that started the "embalmed beef" investigation.

Washington, June 10.—Lieutenant General Miles said here that he was not surprised at the suicide of Dr. Daly, in view of the great personal bereavement that the doctor had suffered recently, and the undermining of his health by a severe attack of the grip last winter. General Miles esteemed Dr. Daly very highly and the two were intimate friends. His death came as a severe blow to the general. Dr. Daly was in the city last March, when he came to be present at the second inauguration of President McKinley. If General Miles can arrange matters he will attend the funeral of his old friend. Surgeon Daly was a deputy to Assistant Surgeon General Charles R. Greenleaf, on the staff of the commanding general during the Spanish-American war. It was through Dr. Daly's allegations that the beef furnished to the army had been tampered with and preserved by means of acids, which, he alleged, were detrimental to the health of the soldiers. That a board of army inquiry conducted the celebrated investigation after the Spanish war.

HUGE TUNNEL IS LAUNCHED.

Tube 225 Feet Long Projected into the Arthur Kill.

New York, June 10.—With the ease of a yacht, a 1,000 ton tunnel, the biggest of the kind ever built in this country, was launched at Lewis Nixon's shipyard at Elizabethport. The monster tube, 225 feet long and big enough for a man to ride through on horseback, shot down the ways into the Arthur Kill so smoothly that a half-dozen men who stood on top of it were not even jostled. Three thousand persons saw the launching. The tunnel is to be used to convey water to the immense Edison power-house now being built at Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth street, East river. This is to be the largest power-house in the world, and is to generate 133,000 horsepower.

The Blood HEALTHY OR DISEASED

When there is a natural and healthy circulation of the blood, the entire quantity, estimated at one-eighth the weight of the body, passes through the heart every five minutes. This rapid flow of the blood through the system prevents the entrance of disease germs and impurities of every description. It filters out all that is not necessary or good for the growth and development of the body and nourishes and strengthens the muscles, tissues, nerves and bones. But, unfortunately, few persons can rightly claim an absolutely pure blood supply and perfect and unimpeded circulation, and in consequence are exposed to innumerable diseases. Contagious Blood Poison, the greatest enemy to mankind, enters the system through the blood, and Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetters—in fact the majority of human ailments—are caused by poisons or humors that are engendered and fostered in a sluggish and impoverished blood. Old sores, chronic ulcers and rheumatic pains are common, especially among old people, whose blood naturally grows thin and pale because of the lack of the red corpuscles that give color and strength to youthful blood. Sallow complexions and rough, oily skins evidence some constitutional or blood trouble, which salves, lotions, powders nor any external treatment can cure. Diseases that originate in the blood, whether they manifest themselves as ulcers, tumors, itching eruptions, muscular or bone pains, require a tonic and blood purifier such as S. S. S., which not only antidotes and neutralizes blood poisons and humors, but possesses health-giving tonic properties that no other blood medicine does. It goes down to the very foundation of the disease and eliminates from the system every- thing of a poisonous character or that obstructs and clogs the circulation. Don't all speak at once. Use 400 lbs. per acre and use it every year till you have raised the grade to No. 1—less acres and more fertilizer will do the business—I intend to keep it on hand, but your order should be placed early to be sure of a supply, as the demand will be largely increased this year.

A BAR TO OUR TRADE.

If America has the natural resources and mechanical ability to establish the greatest international trade in the world, she also has a factor that will prevent her maintaining this supremacy. Our frequent and expensive strikes affect the cost of production just as much as the cost of transportation, or of raw material. Then too our strikes seriously delay the completion of work so as to nullify contracts. Foreign and domestic manufacturers must have material or machines on time in order to complete a contract without loss; and they will soon learn to trade where they are sure of the deliverance of goods on time, even if the quality and prices are a little "off."

Once that our reputation for promptness has suffered, it will be years before it can be repaired, and meantime the striker who is mainly to blame, must suffer the natural result of his injudiciousness—namely—loss of employment.

If our mechanics were only better educated, they could figure out results to their own interest, and the interest of their country more correctly.

Experience is a harsh teacher, but sooner or later her lessons are well learned. Our educated mechanic starts out with a gift of the experience of others who have suffered; and he should profit by such experience in order to advance any over his predecessor. Strikers rarely gain anything and cause an indefinite amount of suffering and loss of reputation.

A LIMIT TO CO-EDUCATION.

There seems to be a movement on foot to regulate or limit co-education. Stanford University and Armour Institute have conditioned the presence of young ladies in their courses.

The action does not in any way reflect upon the young ladies, because their standard of scholarship has always been as high as that enjoyed by their brothers.

But the question is a practical one—shall the Institute be a technical school pure and simple, and do one thing well enough to earn and deserve a name and fame; or shall it attain mediocrity in several branches of study?

Here after courses will cover simply engineering, and if the fairer sex should care to enter these courses, she will be welcome; but as yet woman has not shown the aptitude for these studies that some of them have shown for law, medicine and teaching. People should not consult their prejudices and fancies in forming an opinion on co-education. The higher education and professional education is open to them, and the whole trend is in the direction of co-education, so that the young lady who has to compete with the young man for distinction and honor has at her disposal just as good educational opportunities.

A TOWNSHIP LIBRARY.

A young American writer in the May Forum, has advocated a county library, in farming communities. The experiment has been tried in Ohio and has proved an unqualified success.

We would call the attention of the library board to this experiment, and ask them to consider a plan to make our new library building serve to a certain extent the same purpose of a separate library. The plan we would advocate is to supply the homes of the farmers in the vicinity of Janesville with a traveling library owned and controlled by the city library. A few hundred books could be sent to a centrally located country store or farm house where they could remain a month and be drawn under the same regulations as control the patrons of the city library. At the end of the month the set of books could be delivered to a community at some distance from the first and remain there for a month, while a new set could be delivered to station No. 1. In a year all of the books set aside would have been delivered to each of the various township stations and a wonderful opportunity would have been offered to the farming community who are now compelled to own their own libraries. If they care to do any amount of reading.

BIG YEAR FOR NORTHWESTERN

The annual statement of the C. & N. W. Ry. Co., shows a wonderful increase in business during the past year. Taking into consideration the improvements and extensions in its lines, the company shows net earnings of over $9,000,000. It has expended about $26,000,000 in operating its system; and the statement shows the wonderful commercial activity in the west and northwest as well as conservative railway management.

The true democracy of the south

The former is a populist and the latter is a republican. Gov. McSweeney seems to be a better man than either. Tillman should drop his scandalously abusive language, and McLaurin should drop Tillman.

Carnegie's gift to his native country will allow more fond parents to bid "Godspeed" to the only son, whose labor at college will bring a reward in dollars and cents which will gladden the humble home which sacrifices so much that he may be better prepared to take up the duties of life.

Armour Institute has broken the hearts of over 600 young ladies by closing its doors to them after this year. It promises to be purely a scientific technological school.

Trolley roads as freight distributors will bring about great economic changes of benefit to all classes of society.

China knows something about western business methods as is evinced by the fact that she proposes to pay her debts on the installment plan.

It looks more like a bunch of waste paper than a constitution, after its fight with the United States Supreme Court.

McLaurin may not win out, but the progressive principles he represents will, in a few years, control the situation in the south.

The trust in wealth is our greatest menace. 4,000 men own one-fifth of the entire wealth of the United States.

Too many of our graduates look upon commencement as the end of all intellectual activity.

Salvation is costing the Chinese so much that they are skeptical about its being free.

Shamrock II will follow the Constitution, anyway.

FOREMAN HARTER FINISHES HIS WORK

The Wisconsin Telephone Company's Plant in This City the Best in State—Cost Over $40,000.

The Wisconsin Telephone company construction company have finished their work in this city and will go at once to West Bend, Wis., where they will re-construct the exchange at that point.

Foreman William Harter and crew are gathering up the supplies in this city and shipping them back to Milwaukee, preparatory to leaving. There will be no more work done in this city outside of putting in new lines as the phones are ordered.

The re-construction of the plant has been going on in this city for at least a year and over $40,000 expended by the company on the work.

New poles and cables have been put in over all of the entire system. The office has been remodeled and a new switch board to accommodate eight hundred subscribers installed.

The plant as it now stands is one of the most complete in this part of the country.

Foreman Harter, during his residence in this city has made many warm friends, who will regret to have him leave. He understands his business and is one of the best construction foremen in the employ of the company.

Will Enlarge Big Works.
Joliet, Ill., June 10.—It is unofficially announced that the American Tin Plate Company, which has a $4,000,000 plant here, will enlarge its works, establishing a business that will employ 1,500 men and have a pay roll of $15,000 weekly. The American is part of the United States Steel Company which owns steel and wire mills here, and E. E. J. & E. railroad. The new plant, if built, will be on this road. Officials say the outlook in tin plate business is brighter than ever.

The number of enterprises being located in Spring Brook this year has created a demand for houses and a number of others besides those to be built by ex-Mayor Thoroughgood will soon be erected.

TO BEGIN GRADING IN A SHORT TIME

Work on the Rockford, Beloit & Janesville Electric Line Will Be Pushed Fast as Possible.

H. H. Clough and R. W. Hill of Elyria, Ohio, were in the city last evening to look after their electric railway interests. A number of points regarding the construction of the road were settled by the managers while Mr. Clough and Mr. Hill were in the East.

The profile and cross section drawing for the road were completed and will be ready for the contractors to figure on in a short time. They expect to begin the grading on the right of way in about three weeks but will not do any work in the city in the way of construction before October.

They will not be in shape to do any work on the streets of the city before their rails arrive which will not be until October. They will however, have all of the grading completed and the bridge across the river at the foot of Jackson street built by the time their rails arrive and they are ready to put them down in the streets of the city.

The situation at Beloit still remains unchanged as regards the length of time that their franchise is to run. Mr. Clough went to Beloit today to see how matters stood in that city. While the promoters do not say much regarding the situation at Beloit they were held up by the council of that city.

MAY FESTIVAL TO BE REPEATED

Miss Pearne Peake, who is to give some of her delightful solos at the May festival concert which is to be repeated by the Children's choir of the Congregational church, Wednesday evening, will also sing with the little tots whose kindergarten songs so captivated the audience at the first concert. The program for the repeated concert will be finer than on the former occasion. The tickets will remain the same, fifteen cents, but will not be placed with the children to sell. They will be procured at the door, Wednesday evening. So many requests have been made for the repetition of the concert that a larger audience than before is expected.

As Practiced by Prof. Ripken, a Sure Cure After Everything Else Fails—Indigestion, Stomach and Liver Trouble Entirely Cured.

Mrs. Louis F. Knipp, a prominent lady of Janesville, Wis., says: My daughter was a great sufferer for about three years from indigestion, stomach and liver trouble. She was treated by a number of the most prominent physicians and took medicine nearly all the time, but without receiving any benefit. She had no appetite whatever, and the little she forced herself to eat did not digest. She was growing worse daily until we heard of Prof. Ripken, and I took her to see him. She commenced to improve after the first treatment, and now she is entirely well; eats and drinks what she pleases, and enjoys life. I heartily recommend Prof. Ripken's method of treating disease, and advise those that are ill to give him a trial.

Horse Got Frightened

No further damage was done, the horse being caught and quieted down.

Gardner and a number of the directors of the Northwestern railroad passed through the city Saturday night about 7:30. They had been on a tour of inspection over the different lines of the system and were returning to Chicago.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR GOLF TOURNAMENT

A Large Amount of Time and Money Being Spent on the Greens—Team Standing.

The committees in charge of the golf tournament to be held in this city July 18, 19 and 20, are busily engaged in getting the necessary notices and programs ready for distribution. Nothing will be left undone to make the tournament a success and club members from all parts of the state will be present to take part in the events.

A large amount of time and money has been spent on the grounds this spring and all that is needed to put them in fine shape is plenty of rain. The scarcity of rain has caused the grass to come up rank and stiff. This does not make very much difference on the fair green but interferes very much with first-class work on the putting greens.

Arrangements will be made to have the putting greens watered every night for a week previous to the tournament which will do much to put them in good shape. Most of the members of the club are spending their spare time practicing and playing matches and should be able to keep some of the trophies in this city.

The line-up of the team at the beginning of this week is as follows:

1. H. H. McKinney,	10. A. C. Jenkins,
2. F. J. Baker,	11. Chas. Achteberg,
3. J. P. Baker,	12. H. E. King,
4. Charles Dunn,	13. H. S. McGiffin,
5. Leo Brownell,	14. Geo. Baumann,
6. O. Sutherland,	15. Albert Schaller,
7. F. E. Fifield,	16. F. C. Grant,
8. H. G. Carter,	17. H. McNamara,
9. S. D. Tallman,	18. Fred Puhler,

MILTON JUNCTION IS TURNED DOWN

Application for Incorporation Denied Because Map and Survey Presented Were Inaccurate.

The application of the town of Milton Junction for its incorporation as a village has been denied by the circuit court for the reason that the map and survey accompanying the application were inaccurate. It is a difficult matter to procure an accurate map and survey the first time and the promoters of the plan to incorporate Milton Junction need not feel discouraged. Profiting by the mistakes made in the first map and survey, the second attempt is liable to be more successful. The suggestion of the court that another application for incorporation be made will doubtless be accepted and followed by the people of Milton Junction; who will hope for better luck next time.

CHILDREN'S DAY IN THE CHURCHES; HOUSES OF WORSHIP DECORATED

Yesterday's Services in Local Churches Devoted Mostly to Sunday School Children—Many Baptized; Others Promoted in Classes.

Yesterday was one of the special days in the church year and in four of the local churches Children's Day was observed in a fitting manner, the children of the Sunday school playing an important part in the regular church services. The churches were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and bunting and large congregations assembled at all the sacred edifices.

At Presbyterian Church
At the Presbyterian church both morning and evening services were devoted to the children. The morning service was an especially beautiful one. The railings and doorways had been twined with trailing vines and a bank of green foliage had been placed back of the pulpit, making an effective background for those who took part in the services. At the opening of the service the Sunday school marched in a body. Each child carried a bouquet of flowers which was placed on a frame which stood on the center of the platform. When all of the bouquets had been put into position the frame was transformed into a beautiful pyramid of flowers.

Baptism of Children
The main features of the morning service were the baptism of children and the graduation of several members of the primary class. The ordinance of baptism was administered to five babies, Ralph Irwin Blunk, Magnus Selkirk Hanson, Marion Elizabeth Hanson, Donald Monroe Gardner and Naomi Genevieve Wilkinson.

Very Fine Boys' Choir.
The Boys' choir which was recently organized under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Abbott, made its first appearance before the church and the large congregation was delighted and surprised at the excellence of their singing. The boys occupied the choir loft and sang at both the morning and evening services. The morning service included a solo by Miss Wells and a recitation by Edith Soverhill.

The evening service was devoted entirely to a special program by the children. It included recitations by Cora Holt, Dolly MacLean and Crissy Galbraith, Russell Zeininger, a reading by Pearl Willey, a missionary exercise, violin solo by Wilna Soverhill, solos by Pearl Baker R. B. Kanouse and Ora Hanson, a duet by Ronald Airlis and Richard Jones and songs by Miss Tole's class and the Boys' choir.

At Congregational Church
There were graduation exercises from the primary class and baptism of children also at the Congregational church which was handsomely decorated in yellow and white flowers and bunting of the same color. During the morning service the children's choir sang a beautiful number "The Anthem of Love" by Schaecker with solo exquisitely sung by Chester Morse. The offertory solo was the "Celestial City" by Pontius, sung by Mrs. S. B. Lewis.

Children Promoted and Baptized
The children who were promoted from the primary department were: Marion Blodgett, Elsie Howe, Alta Burg, Mabel Brace, Hazel Geiser, Lucy Aker, Nettie Tyler, Hattie Timpany, Estella Litts, Myra Chapin, Grace Estes, Shyrock McDaniels, Steven Shuler, Frank Shuler, Otto Peterson, Harry Greene, Arthur Achterberg, Ellis Echlin, Lee Craig.

Those whom Rev. Denison baptized were Clara Belle Sherer, Grace Estes, Frederick Paris Puhler, Maud Inez Spoon, Gladys Gardner Crail, Barlow Spoon, Phyllis Spooner, Mary Dell Woodruff.

According to the custom of the church Bibles were presented to the children who have been baptized in the church and have reached the age of seven years. Those who received copies of the Word of God were Ellis Shophell Echlin, Nelma Louise Myhr and Maude Inez Spoon.

The evening service was devoted to picture service, stereopticon views of the life of Christ being shown with brief remarks on the story and the spiritual lesson of each picture by the pastor.

At Court Street M. E. Church
At Court Street M. E. Church the evening service was devoted to the Children's Day observance. The church was elaborately and handsomely decorated with flowers and bunting in red and white, the colors of the Epworth League. The children's chorus gave several selections on the program which also included a duet, "Turn Us O God of Our Salvation," by Mrs. Fannie Clark and Frank Smith, and a solo, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" by Frank Smith.

There were also solos by Louise Tuckwood, Caleb Blodgett and Serene Nasset, a duet by Paul and Ruth Taylor, a song by twelve children, class exercises by the classes taught by Mrs. Taylor and Miss. Lagemann, and the primary class and recitations by Russell Hall, Gladys Gayey, Pearl Peters, Henry Sandell, Violet Dryer and Wilbur Gilkey.

First M. E. Church
At the First M. E. Church also the Children's day services were in the evening. The decorations were especially fine and excellent music made the program very enjoyable. The children were assisted by the male quartet and by Warren and Harry Stevens whose instrumental duet was a gem.

The Children's choir also sang splendidly and the balance of the musical program included a vocal trio by Hattie Delisle, Dora DeLisle and Lillie Zimmerman, a duet and recitation by Olive Staples and Pearl Hall and a solo by Marjorie Bates. The opening address was given by Griffee Zimmerman and there was an exercise by one of the classes. Readings were given by Flora Rider and Cora Wilhelmy and there were recitations by Willie Dumphrey, Winifred Granger, Viola Ruggles and Roy Wells.

Children's Day will be observed at the Baptist church next Sunday. Last evening Rev. R. M. Vaughan began a series of evening sermons on "Crises in Great Lives," taking "Moses at Horeb" as the center of the masterly lessons which he drew.

M. E. Church Thursday evening.
A special meeting of the entire official board of the First M. E. Church Monday evening. The pastor very earnestly requests that every member be present at 7:30. Important business.

Monthly business meeting of the Epworth League of the First M. E. Church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Semi-annual election of officers. A full attendance is desired.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This is to be a meeting of special interest. Missionary tea from 5:00 to 7:00. Regular prayer meeting service at the First M. E. church Thursday evening.

DEATH ON FISHING TRIP.

Three Persons Drowned by the Capsizing of a Skiff.

Dubuque, Iowa, June 10.—While returning from a fishing expedition a skiff containing five persons was struck by a squall at Eagle Point and capsized. Three persons were drowned. The dead: Julius Guderian, aged 50; his wife, aged 45; Mrs. Nicholas Kollie, aged 45. Two boys accompanying the party were rescued by a ferry-boat.

Three Girls Drowned.
Philadelphia, Pa., June 10.—Six persons, three men and three girls, while sailing on the Delaware river off North Essington, a few miles below this city, were thrown into the water by the swamping of their skiff during a squall, and the three girls were drowned. The girls were: Rosie Koons, aged 17 years; Mary Koons, 19; Mamie Traynor, 22. The party were guests of the Federal Boat club.

Drown in Evading Capture.
Chambers, France, June 10.—An American of the name of Constantine Scandal was robbed on the railway, while asleep, by three fellow travelers from Modane and St. Michel. Recognizing the thieves at Saint-Jean-De-Maurienne, he pursued them across the country, and they jumped into the River Arc, where all were drowned.

Mother's Dream Is True.
Evanville, Ind., June 10.—The mother of Clifford Long, aged 11, dreamed her son and Clarence Reno, aged 12, would meet death by drowning. Yesterday the boys fell from a barge into the river and drowned.

Frank Costs Two Lives.
Akron, O., June 10.—Oliver Crosier and Emil Bergdorf were drowned in Summit Lake, near this city. They, with Michael Shay, were crossing the lake in a boat, when Bergdorf began to rock it, and the frail craft upset.

Root Arrives at Buffalo.
Buffalo, N. Y., June 10.—Elihu Root, secretary of war, has arrived in the city. He was met at the station by Director General William L. Buchanan of the Pan-American exposition, and Captain P. C. Hains of the United States army. The other members of Secretary Root's party are Major General Corbin, Major General Young, Colonel and Mrs. Johnston, and Miss Edythe Patten. Mrs. Root and her daughter will arrive here to-day.

New Way to Extract Gold.
Fort Wayne, Ind., June 10.—The Hicks process for extracting gold ore, which has been given a test here, bids fair to revolutionize the methods now in vogue in the gold fields of America. Nine hundred and forty-eight pounds of ore from a mine at Dahoonaga, Ga., were run through the machine and the result was the extraction of $800.48 worth of gold; of this an assay showed only $1.76 in the tailings. Nearly 200 mining experts were present from the West and South.

Detective Goes to Prison.
Memphis, Tenn., June 10.—In the supreme court the verdict of the criminal court sending W. S. Richardson, a well-known detective in the south, to the penitentiary was affirmed. He was sentenced for three years for bribing a jury in a big damage suit. Richardson has had a sensation career. Some years ago he had five negroes in custody who met mysterious deaths and he was tried for the murder, but escaped punishment.

Mrs. McKinley Still in Danger.
Washington, D. C., June 10.—The slight improvement in Mrs. McKinley's health, which manifested itself the latter part of the week, continues and hope begins to be felt that she may after all recover from the present attack. The improvement, however, is so slight as not to change materially the extreme gravity of the case.

Slain in the Philippines.
Manila, June 10.—In a battle with the insurgents at Lipa, province of Batangas, Lieutenant Anton Springer of the Twenty-first infantry was killed and Captain W. H. Wilhelm of the same regiment, Lieutenant Fitzhugh Lee, Jr., Lieutenant Charles R. Ramsey and five enlisted men were wounded.

Passenger Train a Wreck.
New Hampton, Iowa, June 10.—The through passenger going north on the Chicago Great Western was wrecked two miles south of here. The express car, baggage and mail car and tender were thrown into the ditch and splintered.

Robbed by Masked Men.
Centra, Ill., June 10.—The Mobile and Ohio depot at Sparta was robbed by two masked men who bound and gagged the night operator and locked him in a box car. They then blew the safe and secured $300 in cash.

NEWS AND NOTES OF BADGER STATE

There is a merry war of laundrymen in prospect at Sheboygan. The white laundrymen are going to get after the Chinamen. So sharp have the Chinamen made the competition that the white laundrymen, who employ from twelve to fifteen girls, three to four men and run two to three delivery wagons, have been compelled to lower their prices to those charged by the Chinamen. Just what steps are to be first taken are not yet clear, but it is promised that the warfare will be vigorous.

A man with the appearance and wearing the raiment of a laborer has victimized four Superior business houses on worthless paper, and reaped a harvest amounting to about $70 for his enterprise and skill with the pen. The checks were made out to James Dunn, and purported to be signed by the Northern Cut Stone company. They were drawn on checks from the Northwestern National bank. The forger gave his residence as 1822 Ogden avenue. Dunn evidently had fiscal tastes in the matter of purchasing finery. At the New store he bought a red silk parasol, which he said he was to present to his girl. He also made small purchases from his other victims.

The Jones Island squatters won an important victory in Judge Elliott's court. Milwaukee, today. The Illinois Steel company has been for years trying to evict them. The company has claimed title to some thirty-three acres, worth several millions of dollars. There were 148 suits commenced against that many squatters. In the first suit, which went to the supreme court, it was held that their title was good so long as they were in continual possession twenty years, even though the ownership had several times changed. In this suit the court now holds that at the time the company got its patent from the government the land was part of the bed of Lake Michigan. If the supreme court sustains this the land will then belong to the state of Wisconsin, unless the squatters' adverse possession is decided to hold against the state also.

J. M. Kohler company, of Sheboygan has placed a contract with a Waukesha steel structural company for a new plant at Riverside, near that place. The new plant will take the place of the one destroyed by fire last winter and will be completed by Oct. 1. It will be one of the largest enameling plants in the West.

The board of trade of Oshkosh has voted to invite the Sanger band of northern and northeastern Wisconsin to hold the next meeting at Oshkosh, and will guarantee $3,000 if the fest comes there to defray expenses.

As a result of an implied threat that Chippewa Falls would lose its militia company, made by Major J. J. Lynch of Milwaukee, because of lack of local support, the business men have signified a willingness to contribute a generous sum yearly to its support. A collection of money that can be secured will be made in the near future. A rifle range has also been secured.

A report that an attempt had been made to rob a train at La Crosse, was caused by an attempt of a Savannah farmer to stop a train which he wished to take by putting torpedoes on the track. He caught the train but the passengers thought he was a train robber who had stopped the train, and supposed inasmuch as they had not been visited, that he was captured or thrown off.

CUBANS ARE GIVEN WARNING

Constitutional Convention Urged to Take Prompt Action.

INDEPENDENCE IS AT STAKE.

Islanders Told They Must Give Reply to Platt Amendment Before Congress
Meets—Radical Steps May Follow in the Action of Congress.

Washington, D. C., June 10.—Within the last forty-eight hours urgent cable dispatches have been sent from the Cuban colonies in New York and Washington to Havana, urging the leaders in the constitutional convention not to trifle with Uncle Sam any longer, and warning them that the independence of Cuba is at stake and will be lost entirely if there is much more delay. Many of the members of the old Cuban Junta, the men who carried on the propaganda in the United States which at last resulted in the Spanish war, have become convinced that their brethren in Havana are trifling with the destinies of their country. The leaders of the Junta began studying American public opinion long ago, and the messages they are sending to Havana are more than significant. The leaders of the constitutional convention have been warned that if they do not get a government of some kind started before congress meets next December the prospects of complete independence will be considerably less bright than they are at present. These warning messages go on to say that members of congress and distinguished officials of the administration bitterly regret the pledge given in the Teller resolution. The American sense of honor demands the fulfillment of this pledge, but the Cuban radicals are warned that they are playing directly into the hands of the annexationists. They have been told in so many words that if they adjourn without adopting the Platt amendment or dawdle along until December the President will be obliged to send a message to Congress announcing to that body and to the world that the Cubans have refused to accept the conditions imposed upon them. In that case, these resident Cubans say, congress will inevitably take the ground that the Cubans have been offered real independence, have refused to give proper guarantees of good government, and that the terms of the Teller resolution have been followed by congress but rejected by the Cubans themselves. Thereupon annexation would follow as a matter of course.

Snow in Pennsylvania.

Altoona, Pa., June 10.—A cold snap of unprecedented severity for June has practically ruined the farm and garden crops in the mountain section of Pennsylvania. Last night four degrees of freezing were registered in this city, while ice formed at higher levels on the hills. Thursday a temperature of 92 degrees in the shade was registered in Altoona. Snow fell yesterday at Kittanning and several hail storms began damage to the crops, which last night's frost completed.

Smith to Stay in Cabinet.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 10.—Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith came to Pittsburg to visit Calvin Wells, the owner of the Philadelphia Press, in which paper Smith himself is interested. Smith was spoken to regarding the published report that he would withdraw from President McKinley's Cabinet. He replied: "There is no truth in the rumors that I will resign my seat in the Cabinet. I shall remain until the end of President McKinley's term."

Boy Kills Infant Sister.

Pana, Ill., June 10.—The infant daughter of William Dewese, living northeast of Pana, is dead as the result of a gunshot wound. During the absence of the parents a 9-year-old son was left in charge of the baby. The infant was hungry or troubled with colic. Because it continued to cry the boy became infuriated, and, taking a shotgun, aimed deliberately and the discharge tore the body of the infant almost in pieces.

Kills Mother-in-Law and Self.

London, Ont., June 10.—Deserted by his young wife, who refused to return to him, Robert Fulford, of Chicago, killed his mother-in-law, Mrs. Jennie McCord, and then blew out his own brains. The tragedy was enacted on the McCord farm, near Ilderton, not far from this city.

Lightning Hits a School.

Salina, Kan., June 10.—During intense lightning and thunderstorm the Mount Barbara Military college building, located in East Salina, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. The loss is estimated at about $30,000 and was only partly covered by insurance.

BAD TEETH CAUSE OF CRIME.

Defense of Man Accused of Theft in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 8.—A firm of lawyers in the case of Thomas O'Neill, charged with being a thief, will offer as a defense that bad teeth make a man irresponsible for crime. They will bring some expert testimony to show that decayed molars have caused men to commit all sorts of crimes. It is said they rely principally upon the exhaustive investigations said to have been made along this line by Dr. Federspel, of the Racine County Insane Asylum. The doctor has made diligent research and has come to the conclusion that defective molars and bicuspids have a tendency to cause men to commit crimes. He advanced his theory to some of his physician friends some time ago, and the knowledge of his peculiar theory having come to O'Neill's attorneys they propose to use it as a means to keep their client from prison.

ELECTRICAL STORM VISITS THIS CITY

It Was Short But Sharp, and Torrents of Rain Fell—Some Little Damage Done.

A fierce electrical storm visited the city this morning and though but of short duration, while it lasted the rain came down in torrents and sharp lightning played around in all directions on the telephone and telegraph and fire alarm wires. A number of fuses were burned out and in many residences balls of fire played around the telephones.

At the West Side fire station, the lightning ran down the wires into the house and melted off the wires of the switchboard, causing it to catch on fire. The firemen soon extinguished the flames with cloths and City Electrician Kline soon had the damage repaired. The big bell on the engine house struck several times causing the boys to get ready for a run.

One of the Leader Dairy milk wagon was standing on Bluff street near the Janesville Carriage Works, when a ball of fire ran down one of the posts supporting the large awning and shocked the horses attached to the wagon so that one of them fell to the ground seriously injured. When the bolt struck and the horse fell the driver, thinking his time had come, jumped out of the wagon and ran into the shop to get out of danger.

The injured animal finally came to and was taken to Dr. E. D. Roberts hospital where Dr. Perchbecker attended him. He thinks that the animal will come out all right, although his spine seemed to be affected by the shock. A number of people about town received smart shocks while using the telephone. Fortunately no one was seriously injured.

STOLEN GOLD HAS BEEN RECOVERED

Thirteen Thousand Dollars Taken From the Mineral Point Bank Found in Outhouse Vault.

Mineral Point, Wis., June 10.—Thirteen thousand dollars more of the gold coin stolen from the First National bank on the morning of May 24 has been recovered. It was found in the earth vault of an outhouse of the City hotel, about a block from the hotel, at which the prisoner, Steward Jelleff, boarded.

It is believed the detectives got the information from the prisoner, who hoped to lighten the sentence. Detective Shipley of St. Louis went into the vault and dragged the treasure from its hiding place. The gold when found was in five bags, one containing $9,000, and the others $1,000 each. This and the $8,000 before recovered comprises all the gold missing from the bank. The balance, $500, is in currency, and the detectives hope to recover it later.

AUTOMOBILE GOES UP STEEP GRADE

A steam automobile seating four people and a driver passed over the four mile bridge across Rock River yesterday afternoon about three o'clock. The party consisted of three gentlemen and a lady who were making a trip across the country from New York. Parties who saw the outfit say that they had no trouble in going up the step hill at the east end of the bridge after they had passed the soft sand which had washed across the bottom of the hill. The automobile was built at Seneca Falls, N. Y., and was a powerful machine. The party was enjoying its trip very much and had struck but very little bad weather.
